THE MYSTICAL REMINDER

-Anushree Das, Vice-President Literary Committee

As the year's cycle goes around, we come back again and again to this day. There is certain crispness in the air and freshness in Nature. Change is the law of nature. But just being a passive observer of change won't help; we have to be active learners in order to progress. Hence, our wise ancestors welcomed “Rituraj Vasant” by observing Saraswati Puja on Vasant Panchmi. This year it fell on 10th February, Sunday.

Vasant Panchmi is celebrated all over the Indian subcontinent with great joy and rejoice. Saraswati Puja is observed on this day. People, with great excitement, dress up in yellow- the Colour of Vasant. The children are given yellow kerchieves by the elders. With this very thought, I settled down reflecting on the significance of the day. You may or may not agree with my conclusions and that's perfectly fine. Here I present to you some of my findings.

Why Vasant Panchmi? I mean why the 5th day and not the 6th or the 14th. Well, I think it is probably so, as the Universe was said to be made of the Panch Tatwa, the five elements. And now that the Vishwa Prapanch, whatever we see outside us, is up for a better brighter change; this day is a reminder for us to take control of the Inner World. The wellbeing, cleanliness, wholeness and happiness of one's Inner World is one's own responsibility. One has to replace the dark corners of the Inner world with the bright Vasanti yellow.

Those of us who love watching the night sky, know that Shukla Paksh's Panchmi's moon has a perfect boat shape. The ocean might be calm or rough. The Prapanch, the world outside, may be pleasant or tough, but the boat, the mind is always headed towards its destination. Hence, we have to make our boats strong and sturdy and navigate the waters with full responsibility. Here, I conclude by repeating my findings in points:

- 1) Change is the law of nature. This day is our reminder to be active learners instead of being passive observers of change.
- 2) Don't just wear yellow, embody yellow. Don't just worship Saraswati- don't just worship knowledge; embody Saraswati- embody knowledge.
- 3) My happiness is my responsibility and I will take care of that.
- 4) We have to build strong; sturdy and focused minds; take control; steer through the ups and downs; and achieve our goals gracefully.
